

Value to a Consultancy Practice

Murray King
CILT past National President
King Small Consulting

Networking

- Obvious but important
- Mix with wide range of transport and logistics professionals
- At senior levels too
- Policy, planning, doing people

Networking (2)

- Widen your horizons
- Hear about aspects of transport you might not normally be involved in
- Never know when that contact or knowledge will be call on – important for consultancy
- Broad range of contacts

International connections

- 30 countries
- Way into those markets
- Contacts at international conferences
- www.transportnews.itn.co.uk (online TV channel)

Conferences

- Last one on Disaster Management
- International speakers
- Field visit to Christchurch
- Make contacts, expand knowledge

Training

- Access to CILT International courses
- NZ's own leadership course

CILT Journal

- Wide scope, relevant topics
- Can write for it too, get exposure

Knowledge centre

- Access to CILT UK library, information service, databases
- Database of 10,000 companies
- 2200 full text newspapers
- Links to articles
- Legal database
- Even book lending

Next speakers

- Cormac McBride, Chair Central Section, Transportation Strategist/National Specialist ITS TDG
 - a glimpse of future ITS
- Rick Van Barneveld, CMILT, KiwiRail
Infrastructure and Engineering team
 - The future is now - using technology to drive safety improvement